

2025-2026 REVIEW OF SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Student's Name _____ ID Number (7 digits) _____

The 2025-2026 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) you completed used 2023 income and assets to determine your financial need for this academic year. Federal regulations allow financial aid administrators to make professional judgements in regard to students who have special circumstances that could affect their ability to pay for their education. If you and/or your family have experienced major changes in your income since filing the FAFSA, you should use this form to have your financial aid file reviewed.

Forms must be submitted at least two weeks before the end of the semester to allow time for the form to be processed and financial aid eligibility to be re-evaluated.

EXAMPLES OF SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES AND REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION:

- Divorce/Separation or death of a family member (spouse or parent, for dependent students) after filing original FAFSA
Required Documentation: Separation statement indicating date of separation, divorce papers, death certificate or obituary
- Elementary or secondary school tuition in the calendar year 2023
Required Documentation: A school statement showing the date and amount paid in 2023 for tuition only
- Excessive 2023 medical/dental/nursing home expenses paid by the student (or parent, for dependent students) and not covered by insurance (unpaid medical/dental/nursing home charges do not qualify)
Required Documentation: Copies of receipts from 2023 for all medical/dental/nursing home payments
OR
Required Documentation: Letter stating 2023 charges from health care provider or nursing home not covered by insurance
- Loss of income for an extended period due to loss of job resulting in unemployment for at least 10 consecutive weeks in 2025
Required Documentation: Copy of termination notice or letter from former employer stating last day of employment
- Non-taxable income (social security benefits, child support received, etc.) has been substantially reduced or eliminated for the 2025 year
Required Documentation: A statement from the appropriate agency, stating the last date the benefit was paid. In cases of loss of child support, attach a copy of divorce decree indicating the date the child support ceased
- Reduction of income for an extended period of time due to returning to school or health problems
Required Documentation: Letter from employer showing, with dates, inability to work/reduction in hours
- Student/spouse or parent, for dependent students, income for 2023 that includes an income that is typically only received once
Required Documentation: An official document identifying the source of income (ex. Capital gains from sale of assets, prize winnings, pension payoffs, etc.) AND Required Documentation: Personal statement explaining how the funds were spent
